A NEW FIRM

In Philadelphia, at the Head of Which is a Big Sandian.

The following from a leading Philadelphia paper refers to Geo. B. Carey son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carey, of Louisa. Mr. Reed is his brother-in-law. George has been in the East for about 15 years in the line of work in which he is now engaged and has made a success. He is one of the Big Sandy boys who have gone out from home and pushed his way to the front, with no other capital than won in the most active field in the world, where competition is strongest, and where the best ability struggles for the mastery. We refer to New York, Philadelphia and other eastern cities where George has been doing business.

His brothers, Millard and Charles, have positions with the new firm. Both have been employed at this class of work and have become quite proficient.

On Thursday at noon, April 2, 1908, the Big Sandy river registered 48.4 feet on the U. S. gauge at Louisa. This is four-tenths higher than the flood of 1899, which reached its highest on March 6th. Up to yesterday this stood as the highest mark since the government began to record the stages here.

Train service on the Big Sandy division has been entirely suspended. No. 36 ran to Paintsville yesterday and returned immediately to avoid being laid out between here and Ashland. The water was over the track at Potter and Lockwood. Traffic above Paintsville was suspended after Monday. Eight slips are reported between Paintsville and Prestonsburg and several above. A passenger train is at Beaver, unable to get out in either direction. Service will not be possible for a week or more. The Ohio is raising rapidly and is now almost at the Alger House at Catlettsburg.

Floyd Webb, who has been attending school here, left Saturday for his home on Beaver, Floyd county.

Chris Chaney charged with the murder of one Blankenship in this county thirteen years ago, was arrested and placed in jail Saturday. He and some man named Hardin are accused of the murder. Chaney fled soon after the murder, ere he could be apprehended, and like most of Pike county's fugitives, headed for the State of Washington. He slipped back to this county a few days ago for his first visit, and his arrest followed.

Mrs. Mary Davis, wife of Judge Brackin Davis, of Coal, this county, died Wednesday of last week, after an illness of three days. She was a most excellent woman.

Rev. K. Caton arrived here last Saturday evening, according to appointment, and on Sunday morning entered upon the revival work for which he was brought here. Services are being held each afternoon and evening at the M. E. Church, South.

The attendance is as good as could be expected under existing conditions.

Rev. Caton is a plain, forceful preacher. He has been quite successful in revival work and it is believed that he will awaken much interest here.

A singer arrived Tuesday to take charge of the music. He is from Parla, Ky., and his name is Mr. Reid.

Other ministers of this locality are helping in the services.

Cincinnati, O., March 27.—Announcement is made today of the engagement of Mr. William Henry Harrison, of Cincinnati, to Miss Adela R. Hager, daughter of Hon. J. F. Hager, of Ashland, Ky. Mr. Harrison is the son of Mrs. Geo. T. Harrison, of Oak street, and is an active member of the Rising Country and Cincinnati Golf Club and of the 'Queen City Club.

A good many of the students attended services at the various churches Sunday morning and night.

Robt. Sturgell and wife, who sold their farm last week, will go to Princeton, N. J. county for the summer.

And Carter has purchased of Wm. Justice the residence on Maple street owned by Mrs. R. C. McClure.

Attorney C. L. Miller has rented an office in the Louisiana National Bank building and is ready to accommodate clients. He is a bright and industrious young lawyer.

of Mrs. Geo. T. Harrison, of Oak street, and is an active member of the Riding, Country and Cincinnati Golf Club and of the Queen City Club.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when this is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists & etc.

Remember that when the stomach nerves fail or weaken, Dyspepsia or Indigestion must always follow. But strengthen these same weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and then see how quickly health will again return. Weak Heart and Kidney nerves can also be strengthened with the Restorative, where heart palpitations, or kidney weakness is found. Don't drug the stomach or stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is wrong. Go to the cause of these ailments. Strengthen these weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and get well. A simple single test will surely tell. Louisa Drug Company.

$100.00 paid by Dr. Shoop for any recent case of Grippe or acute cold that a 25 cent box of Preventives will not break. How is this for an offer? The Doctor's supreme confidence in these Little Candy Cold Tablets—Preventives—is certainly complete. It's $100 against 25 cents—pretty big odds. And Preventives, remember, contains no quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh or sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if early colds were always broken. Safe and sure for feverish children. 45 Preventives for 25 cents. Louisa Drug Co.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

Sunday School Lesson for April 5, 1908

Specially Prepared for This Paper

LESSON TEXT.—John 10:1-18. Memory Verse, 9.

GOLDEN TEXT.—"The good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep."—John 10:11. TIME.—September 4, D. D. at the feast of tabernacles (John 7:2). Some commentators, however, consider that John 9:1-10:21 took place at the feast of Dedication (John 10:22) in November. The latter part of the third year of Jesus' public ministry.

PLACE.—Jerusalem. On the second supposition as to time, the exact place was Solomon's porch, on the east side of the temple. "Jesus with His audience might have seen the shepherds gathering their scattered flocks if they grazed out from the courts of the temple over the neighboring hills."—Public Commentary.

PERSONS.—Probably the blind man whom Christ had just healed, some of Christ's disciples, and some of the Pharisees.

Comment and Suggestive Thought.

The Twofold Parable: the Fold, the Shepherd.—Vs. 1-4. First let us try to put ourselves back among the sheepfolds of Christ's time. How were they arranged? "The fold was a walled enclosure open to the sky, with a solid door, which was closely barred at night by the doorkeeper, and opened by him in the morning, when the shepherds came to claim their sheep, which they had left in the fold the previous evening, in order to lead out to pasture."—Century Bible. The doorkeeper, or "porter," would know that anyone found climbing in over the wall was "a thief" (a sneak thief), or "a robber" (a more violent rascal).

The Twofold Interpretation of the Parable.—Vs. 7-13. What double analogy did Christ draw from the parable?

He was the Door (v. 7) and the Shepherd (v. 11). Why did he run the risk of confusing his hearers? Because truth is so many-sided, and Christ means so much to men, that many comparisons are needed to picture it all.

First Analogy: Christ, the Door (vs. 7-9). How is Christ like the door of a fold? Through him alone can men enter into the peace and safety that a fold implies—safety from the ravens of sin, peace in the consciousness of safety. Through the door, too, they go out (v. 9) into the "pasture." "What am a door for, anyhow? Jes' to shet 'em out, jes' to shet 'em in' or to let 'em thro'." Jesus am de Door, de way into de Kingdom; an' he am de Door, de way out into life. He sho' did say, "If ye' enters in by me, ye' shall be saved"—no evil can get by de Door Jesus. "An' ye' shall go out an' in." Honey, dat am de freedom what he am all de time promisin'.

"An' ye' shall find pasture." Dat am de fullness of life what he am all de time tellin' 'bout. When ye' passes out an' when ye' passes in, ye' sho' nat has to pass right by de Mastah, and look him plum squar' in de eyes.—J. W. Lawrence. "Go in and out" was a phrase familiar to the Jews. See Dent. 28: 6; Psal. 121: 3; Jer. 37: 4.

Why did Christ say he was the door of the sheep, rather than "of the fold"? Because Christ was thinking of his individual followers, the sheep, rather than of the fold, his church. He is the door of both.

Who were those that came before Christ, the thieves and robbers, whom the sheep did not hear? Not the prophets, who humbly pointed forward to Christ, but the Jewish leaders of the time just before Christ, and especially the Pharisees. They had laid many heavy burdens upon the people, who had been compelled to obey the severe requirements of formal religion, but their hearts never yielded to these false leaders. "The sheep did not hear them."

Second Analogy: Christ, the Shepherd (vs. 10-18, 23-28). As opposed to the Pharisees' wrong way of entering the Kingdom, Christ was the Door: but as opposed to the character of the Pharisees, he was the Shepherd. "As mediator between God and man, he is the Door; as prophet or teacher, he is the Good Shepherd."—James M. MacDonald, D. D. This is a frequent metaphor of the Old Testament, applied to God and to God's honored servants (Num. 27: 15-31; Psal. 23: 1; Isa. 40: 11; Jer. 23: 1-4; Ezek. 34: 11-16; Zech. 11: 4-17). Homer often speaks of his kings and leaders as shepherds; see also Plato's Republic, Book I. "The figure has impressed itself deeply on the mind of Christendom, and is conspicuous in the art and literature of the churches. It is still the emblem of the Christian ministry, from the office of the bishop, with his pastoral staff, to that of the village preacher, who is known as pastor."—Century Bible. "This is the favorite and most touching figure in the Gospels. It seems to inspire the early Christian painters with delightful skill."

How was Christ like a shepherd? In (1) his care of men (vs. 10-13), in (2) his knowledge of men (vs. 14, 15), in (3) the breadth of his love for men (v. 16), in (4) the eagerness of men's love for him (v. 27), in (5) his divine commission to care for men (vs. 15, 17, 18, 23, 29).

Two Kinds of Hearers (vs. 10-21, 31-42). Christ's words, like a two-edged sword, always divided his hearers into two classes: those that mocked at him or "aged against him, and those that went away thoughtful and impressed if not convinced. If the last half of the chapter is to be referred to the same occasion as the first half (see "Time"), the first set of hearers even tried to stone Christ for his claim of unity with God. This stoning for blasphemy was proscribed in Lev. 24: 16, and the Jews had attempted it only two months before.

Is which class of hearers are you?

If there is one thing more than another that betrays a man's littleness or lack of raising that thing is to give utterance to blood-curdling oaths on the streets, regardless of who may be in hearing. Such performances strengthen the belief in the Darwinian theory without any very great advancement from the point of starting.

Did you ever watch the operation of a loom in a woolen mill? So long as the operator attends closely to the work all in hand goes well, but if she pays too much attention to what her neighbor is doing, her work is likely to get "down" and "overshot" appear. So in our life weaving, many a break is made in the web simply from giving too much attention to the warp and woof of others' lives, and too little to our own.

Happy are they whose names suggest gladness and brightness, whose presence acts as sunshine wherever they may move. Even those who are not joyful by nature may become thankful and bright by grace, and recommend that which is pure, good and lofty, by putting away murmurings, complaints and irritability. Think more of our preservations, our deliverances, and let bright hope buoy us above the sombre and unpleasant things of life, and our depressions will be cured and the spirit of heaviness be replaced by the garment of praise.

Every farmer who provides himself with a beautiful home surrounded by green lawns and winding paths, a well cultivated farm, and all that makes life pleasant, is a blessing to the neighborhood. Were there no tramps, no paupers, but if all could be induced by proper training to become self-reliant citizens, useful, first to themselves and indirectly to their fellows, by bearing each his share of the world's progress, the millennium would be on its way hither.

THE WIFE.

A good wife is to a man wisdom and courage, strength, hope and endurance. A bad one is confusion, weakness, discomfiture and despair. No condition is hopeless when the wife possesses firmness, decision, energy and economy. There is no outward prosperity which can counteract indolence, folly and extravagance at home. No spirit can long resist bad domestic influence. His home must be to him a place of repose, of peace, of cheerfulness, of comfort, and his soul renews its strength and again goes forth with fresh vigor, to encounter the labor and troubles of the world.

Every wedded pair might be happy, did they but bear each other's burdens, and strive with half the zeal they sometimes exert to make each other miserable, to contribute to each other's mutual happiness.

HOW TO MAKE A WIFE UNHAPPY.

See your wife as seldom as possible. If she is warm-hearted and cheerful in temper, or if, after a day's or a week's absence, she meets you with a smiling face and in an affectionate manner, be sure to look coldly upon her and answer her with monosyllables. If she forces back her tears and is resolved to look cheerful sit down and gaze in her presence, till she is fully convinced of your indifference. Never think you have anything to do to make her happy, but that her happiness is to flow from gratifying your caprices; and when she has done all a woman can do, be sure you do not appear gratified. Never take an interest in any of her pursuits; and if she asks your advice, make her feel that she is troublesome and impertinent. If she attempts to rally you good-naturedly on any of your peculiarities, never join in the laugh but frown her into silence. If she has faults (which without doubt, she will have, and perhaps may be ignorant of) never attempt with kindness to correct them, but continually obtrude upon her ears: "What a good wife Mr. Smith has!" "How happy Mr. Smith is with his wife!" "Any man would be happy with such a wife." In company never seem to know that you have a wife. Treat all her remarks with indifference. Be very affable and pleasant to every other lady. If you follow these directions you may be certain of an obedient and heart-broken wife.

FAULT FINDING.

Don't get in the habit of it. It's the easiest thing to do and the hardest thing to sop in the wide, wide world. It ruins your temper and spoils the shape of your mouth. Try and see the good rather than the disagreeable in the people and your surroundings. You would not go to a friend's house and find fault with what she does and with what she has and her ways of living. What right have you, then, to find fault with those who are more than friends to you—the people of your own blood? If there is a grace that all are stingy with, it is that of giving praise, and yet it is one with which we ought to be lavish. Why should you tell your friend that her bonnet is unbecoming, and when you have never said this to your sister? Why should you go out to tea and praise your neighbor's muffins, when you have forgotten to tell your mother how good hers were? Why should you announce how much Mr. Wilson over the way knows, when father is a great deal better informed man, and it has never entered your little head to quietly whisper to him how much you appreciate his wisdom? You keep your ability to discover faults for the home while the eye that should look for virtues is closed tightly until you go out. Don't wait until some one is gone from you to tell their virtues. Don't wait until your sister is far away in another land to tell her how helpful, how pretty or how courteous she is; and don't wait until all the weary hands are crossed and the long sleep comes before you make mother know what a beautiful blue are her eyes, how tender her heart, and how dearly you love her. Tell her all now—now, when the walk through life is hard, and the sunshine of praises is yearned for to brighten it, and to warm and encourage the pilgrim by the wayside.

DEATH WAS ON HIS HEELS.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., and a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared that consumption had me, and that death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two bottles and a half I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at A. M. Hughes' drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

"GOOD LUCK"
BAKING BREAD

No housewife or baker can have
"good luck" if the flour is poor.
Why not use the flour that everybody speaks well of? Few flours ever had such a good reputation as

It is a Flour with Life to It.

It is purity itself; it is snowy white; it makes light, white, nutritious bread.
When you set your bread you know it is going to raise. Surest guarantee you can get against sourness and impurities.
Ask your dealer. Nothing to pay if you don't like it. We are behind him in this.

Here is one case of it:

James Peters, living on Lock Ave., Louisa, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have proved to be the best remedy I have ever used. I was in a miserable condition as the result of kidney complaint and all the remedies I used failed to cure me. Whether walking or sitting the pain was very severe and if I attempted to arise or lift anything sharp twinges of pain would dart through me. The kidney secretions were irregular, dark colored and caused me to arise several times during the night. At times there was almost a retention and a sensation as if I were being burned with scalding water at the time of passage. I was becoming discouraged when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I began their use. In a short time I felt like a different person. I continued taking the remedy and feel so much stronger at present that I cannot hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others. I will be pleased to give further details of my case to anyone who wishes to call upon me."

cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo

Spring Millinery.

The season's latest conceits in this line is now on display in this department and judged by other showings of like nature in the history of the store the present assortment of fine millinery is the most beautiful we have ever offered to the public.

We have everything in the line from the medium conservative styles to those ultra fashionable creations in the "Merry Widow" sailors and other new and popular shapes.

Judging from the expressions of many visitors on our first showing of these new conceits, we have something unusually pretty and pleasing to offer. Our entire line shows the care we have taken in making our selections and the harmonious effects obtained exhibit the skill of the milliners art to the highest degree—individually in many designs —a creation to suit every type of beauty—correct in the best interpretation of the season's styles and demands—priced at the right figures.
We cordially invite you to come in today and look over this beautiful array at pleasure—you will find it much more satisfactory than trying to examine the showing when the crowd is so dense as to make it almost impossible to secure what you desire with any degree of satisfaction.
We have individual fitting rooms for those who desire to select a hat of any special design or type.

THE ANDERSON-NEWCUMB CO,

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

IS HARMLESS.

How to Prepare a Simple Mixture
To Overcome Disease.

To relieve the worst form of rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These harmless ingredients can be obtained from our home druggist, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription, states a well-known authority in a Cleveland morning paper, forces the clogged-up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism.

As rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is said that a person how would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious kidney and urinary disorders or rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescriptions which really relieve, are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.
Our druggists here say they will either supply these ingredients or make the mixture ready to take, if any of our readers so prefer.

The above cut shows the outside and inside of the New Valentine Store at Huntington. This is considered the finest store room within a hundred miles of Huntington and the line of ladies garments, suits, wraps, hats, waists, skirts, etc., is without an equal outside the very largest cities. The Valentine Store already enjoys a large trade from ladies along Big Sandy river as far as Pikeville and invites the patronage of those who desire apparel that is correct without being unnecessarily costly. The New Store is built on the colonial style of architecture and is located on Fourth Avenue, opposite the entrance to the New Hotel Frederick. A visit to the Valentine Store is a revelation to those who have not seen a perfectly equipped up-to-date garment store.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Important Rulings Made By Postoffice Department.

The Postmaster General of the United States has just made an order which will have the effect of prohibiting weekly newspapers from extending credit to subscribers for more than one year's subscription. If a publisher sends his paper longer than one year on credit he must affix a one-cent stamp to each copy thus mailed. This is ten times as much postage as is charged on paid subscriptions and the difference in the two rates is more than the publisher's profit. The Big Sandy News has a small percentage of subscribers who will be reached by this order. We hope this will be sufficient notice to them and that they will give the matter immediate attention. The date on your label is intended to show the time you are paid to. If you are in doubt about the amount due write at once.

Don't Neglect It

It is a serious mistake to neglect a weak heart. It is such a short step to chronic heart disease.

When you notice irregularity of action, occasional short breath, palpitation, fluttering, pain in chest or difficulty in lying on left side, your heart needs help—a strengthening tonic. There is no better remedy than Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. Its strengthening influence is felt almost at once.

"I have used 10 bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and can truthfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever used, and I have tried nearly everything that I know of. The doctor who attended me asked me what I was taking and I told him Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, he said it was not going to do me any good, but it did. I have not taken any for a year now, and while there is considerably a slight weakness of the old trouble, it is not enough for me to interfere with the use of the medicine. If I should get worse I would know what to do. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure as I did before. I consider myself practically cured of my heart trouble."

W. H. BROWN, Livingston, Tenn.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit you. If it fails he will refund your money.
